- examine the reports presented by the Monitoring Team
- report annually to the Security Council on the implementation of the sanctions measures
- conduct outreach activities

Background information

The Committee was initially established pursuant to resolution 1267 \(1999\), which imposed a limited air embargo and assets freeze on the Taliban. Over time, the regime evolved and the measures became a targeted assets freeze, travel ban and arms embargo against designated individuals and entities. Exemptions to the assets freeze and travel ban were also introduced and the fairness and clarity of the procedures for listing and de-listing was improved, in particular through the establishment of the Office of the Ombudsperson.

On 17 June 2011, the Security Council unanimously adopted resolutions 1988 \(2011\) and 1989 \(2011\). With the adoption of these resolutions, the Security Council decided that the list of individuals and entities subject to the measures would be split in two. The that the list of individuals and entities subject to the measures would be split in two. The Committee was henceforth known as the Al-Qaida Sanctions Committee, mandated to oversee implementation of the measures against individuals and entities associated with Al-Qaida. A separate Committee was established pursuant to resolution 1988 (2011) to oversee implementation of the measures against individuals and entities associated with the Taliban in constituting a threat to the peace, stability and security of Afghanistan.

On 17 December 2015, the Security Council unanimously adopted resolution 2253 \(2015\). With the adoption of this resolution, the Security Council decided to expand the listing criteria to include individuals and entities supporting the Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL). The resolution also directs the Monitoring Team to submit reports on the global threat posed by the Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL, also known as Da'esh), Al-Qaida, and associated individuals, groups, undertakings and entities. Member States are encouraged to (a) designate national focal points on issues related to the implementation of the measures described in the resolution, and (b) report to the Committee on obstacles to the implementation of the measures described in the resolution; also, calls upon all States to submit an updated report to the Committee no later than 120 days from the adoption of the resolution.

later than 120 days from the adoption of the resolution.

On 17 December 2021, Security Council unanimously adopted resolution 2610 \(2021\) . With the adoption of the resolution, the Security Council reaffirmed the assets freeze, travel ban and arms embargo affecting all individuals and entities on the ISIL (Da'esh) & Al-Qaida Sanctions List. The resolution also extended the mandates of the Monitoring Team and the Office of the Ombudsperson for 30 months until June 2024.

On 10 June 2024, Security Council adopted resolution 2734 (2024) reaffirming the assets freeze, travel ban and arms embargo affecting all individuals and entities on the ISIL (Da'esh) & Al-Qaida Sanctions List. The resolution also extended the mandates of the Monitoring Team and the Office of the Ombudsperson for 36 months until June 2027.

Summary of listing criteria

The criteria for adding a name to the ISIL (Da'esh) & Al-Qaida Sanctions List are set out in paragraphs 2 to 5 of resolution 2734 (2024). States are required to impose the measures upon Al-Qaida or ISIL (Da'esh) and other individuals, groups, undertakings and entities associated with them.

Acts or activities indicating that an individual, group, undertaking or entity is associated with ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida include:

- Participating in the financing, planning, facilitating, preparing, or perpetrating of acts or activities by, in conjunction with, under the name of, on behalf of, or in support of;
- Supplying, selling or transferring arms and related materiel to;
- Recruiting for; or otherwise supporting acts or activities of, ISIL (Da'esh), Al-Qaida or any cell, affiliate, splinter group or derivative thereof.
- Resolution 2734 (2024) also recognizes that planning, directing, or committing acts involving sexual and gender-based violence including rape, enslavement of persons, and cases of abduction and trafficking in persons may be eligible for designation in the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions List on the basis of the criteria set out in paragraph 2 of this resolution, when such acts are being used by ISIL, Al-Qaida and associated

Security Council, which sanctions them on the basis of the criteria set forth in paragraph 1 of this resolution, when such acts are being used by ISIL, Al-Qaida and associated individuals, groups and entities as a tactic of terrorism.
